eligibility criteria, fails to comply with these requirements, attempts to enter the scholarship application in any manner or through any means other than as described in these requirements, attempts to disrupt or attempts to circumvent any of these requirements. Entries made with multiple addresses, under multiple identities, or through the use of any device or artifice to enter multiple times or entries that are in excess of the permitted number of entries during the application period are automatically void. South Carolina Federal reserves the right to make changes to these requirements at any time.

All decisions made by South Carolina Federal will be final. The winners will be featured on scfederal.org, in the South Carolina Federal e-newsletter and on South Carolina Federal's social media pages.

How to Apply

Complete an application (application link found at scfederal.org/scholarship or <https://apply.mykaleidoscope.com/scholarships/southcarolinafcuscholarship2022> using a browser other than Internet Explorer).

- Application to include a short essay (500 words or less) on the following topic: Since 1936, South Carolina Federal Credit Union has given back to the communities we serve. How will your education enable you to give back to your community and make a difference in the lives of South Carolinians?

Supporting Documents

Applicants are required to supply the following supporting documentation along with their application form:

- Recommendation letter from a teacher or counselor at your current school.
- Transcript from current school (with GPA).
- Recent photo (photo may be used on scfederal.org as an indication of who applied – it will not be used in the judging process).

Selection and Disbursement

All decisions made by South Carolina Federal will be final. A panel will be selected consisting of both credit union employees and volunteers at the full discretion of South Carolina Federal. Applications will be judged impartially and anonymously following a documented process as determined by South Carolina Federal.

Recipients will be verified and then contacted by a South Carolina Federal representative by email and asked to respond within a specified period of time. A recipient must respond to the written communication by the deadline stated within that communication. The credit union is under no obligation to contact applicants a second time if response is not made within the stated deadline and they will be disqualified and another winner chosen. The initial selected disqualified potential winner(s) will have no recourse towards South Carolina Federal. The winners will then be announced publicly by April 29, 2022.

- The scholarship recipients will receive proceeds for the fall semester 2022 for a college/university within the state of South Carolina.

- If the student does not use the entirety of the funds they were awarded from the scholarship for the fall 2022 semester, the leftover funds should remain in the student's account and used for tuition or other school expenses during the current, next or future terms.

A check will be issued directly to the financial aid office at the educational institution once the credit union has been provided with the necessary information from the winner, including their full legal name and student ID number. All scholarships are non-refundable to students. If the student leaves the school or completes their degree before the full amount of the award has been used, leftover funds are not to be returned to students. Under no circumstances will South Carolina Federal direct a college or university to return unused scholarship funds to a student in cash.

If a potential winner cannot accept the award, their entry will be forfeited and another eligible entrant may be selected. Any costs associated with accepting the scholarship shall be the sole responsibility of the winner. An entrant is only eligible to win one of the prizes awarded. Prize must be accepted as awarded and may not be transferred or exchanged. Under no circumstances will South Carolina Federal, its affiliates, subsidiaries, and independent contractors, and their respective directors, officers, employees, and agents, including advertising and promotion agencies be required to award more scholarships than what is indicated in these Scholarship Requirements or award the prize other than in accordance with these requirements. Eligible entrants as defined above can win a maximum of one (1) of the prizes as outlined above. In order to be eligible to claim their scholarship, each recipient must:

- Sign a Declaration of Compliance with Requirements and an Assignment, Release and Indemnity Form, assigning all rights to their submission to South Carolina Federal, including all copyrights and moral rights and releasing South Carolina Federal, their affiliates and respective advertising and promotions agencies from any liability in connection with award.
- Produce valid identification and, if requested by South Carolina Federal, students must show proof that they are registered for at least 12 credits (for those students planning to attend a traditional college/university) or 6 credits (for those students planning to attend a nontraditional/technical college/university during the fall 2021 semester) and photo identification.
- If the above requirements are not met, the recipient will be disqualified and another winner will be selected in their place.

By entering an essay in your application, you waive all rights you may have with respect to the essay, including all moral rights and rights of personality, publicity or privacy, and you grant to South Carolina Federal the unrestricted, royalty-free, perpetual, irrevocable, worldwide license (but not the obligation) to use, reproduce, communicate, modify and display the essay (in whole or in part) for any purpose without any fee or other form of compensation, and without further notification or permission, including without limitation the following purposes:

- publishing it in an electronic form on scfederal.org
