National Credit Union Youth Week™

Money Rock$ at My Credit Union, April 17–23

Are you a rock star at saving your money? Do you look forward to depositing money into your savings account every month? If so, South Carolina Federal Credit Union wants to celebrate you during National Credit Union Youth Week, April 17–23, for all the smart money choices you have made to save your money!

The theme for our annual celebration is Money Rock$ at My Credit Union! Youth members of all ages are encouraged to make a deposit of $10 or more during the week-long event. Prizes will be given out to each participant.

So, what are you waiting for? Tell your parents today that YOU are a CREDIT UNION ROCK $TAR! We hope to see you at South Carolina Federal.

There's More Than One Way to Share

When you play with your friends, you probably get along better when everyone shares the toys, right? That way everyone gets a turn, and nobody is left out.

As you get older, the idea of sharing will start meaning more than just sharing your toys when your friends come over to play with you. You will start to understand that some people have more than others, and it's nice when those of us who have more help people who have less by sharing our unused toys and clothes with them.

If you open your closet and see toys in there that you've outgrown or clothes that you don't wear anymore, ask your mom or dad if it would be okay for you to give those things to a place that will pass them on to people who need them. Your things can make great "gifts" to kids who don't have their own games, toys and nice clothes. Plus, you'll feel good about helping other kids, and you'll have more room in your closet too!
