

Money Safety Tips

Taking care of your money is a lot like taking care of your favorite toy—it starts with the simple habits you do every day. Here are a few tips to build your money safety skills:

- Save your coins in a jar or piggy bank where you can watch them grow.
- Ask a grown-up for help whenever you use money. Your family should always be aware of when you earn or spend.
- Check your pockets for money before starting a load of laundry so your coins and bills don't get lost or damaged.
- Keep your money off of the floor where little ones or pets could find it.

These tips help you learn smart and safe ways to take care of your money!
